

“The public library has been historically a vital instrument of democracy and opportunity in the United states . . . Our history has been greatly shaped by people who read their way to opportunity and achievements in public libraries.”

- Arthur M. Schlesinger (1888-1965)

Be a Friend of the Library

Modern libraries are not just repositories of books. The library of the future will be a dynamic integrated information network and repository offering affordable, seamless services to satisfy the information needs of individuals, businesses and organizations, as well as serving as public information centers. Through the joint efforts of Dakota County, the City of Inver Grove Heights, District 199 and Inver Hills Community College, Inver Grove Heights has such a library on 80th Street, between Inver Hills Community College and the Simley High School parking lot.

Features of the Library

- * Space for 30,000 books
- * A children's collection and activity area
- * Adult and young adult collections
- * Computers with internet and printer access
- * Electronic access to other county, college, and school libraries
- * Group and individual computer instruction
- * An information reference area
- * Audiovisual collection and viewing station
- * Periodicals
- * Drive up book return

Who are the Library Friends?

The Friends of the Inver Glen is a group of interested residents who volunteer their time to raise money for special amenities in the library that are not paid for by the county, including special architectural features, works of art and landscaping. We also work to provide funds to purchase special equipment and unique items for the collections. There are many opportunities for Friends to volunteer by reading to children, adopting book shelves, tending the gardens, and helping with special projects and events.
