

Project Need

This study is taking place to address safety and delays on Pilot Knob Road resulting from the close spacing of intersections, the lack of local road connections adjacent to the corridor and increasing traffic volumes within the area.

