1. Which careers from your results could you start planning for today? What would your next steps be?

2. Which careers from your results appeal to you but seem “out of your league”? Why? What feedback do others have? Do any of them feel the same way?

3. Are there any careers in your results that appeal to you but would be long term goals? Are there careers that you could strive for in the short term that would help you to reach the longer term goal?

4. What personality traits did the assessment identify in you which will help you get to your goal?

5. What personality traits did the assessment identify which might hinder or get in the way of you getting to your goal? Can others help you think of ways to help compensate?

6. Are there external factors which might get in the way of getting to your goal? Can others help you compensate? _____

After 30 minutes of discussing the questions, one member from each pair or group should share the main points of the discussion with the large group to see how they are both similar and different.
