Filing taxes and receiving a refund can provide a unique opportunity to get ahead financially.

In response to the COVID-19 pandemic, Congress expanded several important tax benefits, increasing the amount many U.S. taxpayers could receive with their refunds in 2022. For example, you may have already benefited from advance payments of the Child Tax Credit during 2021.

To learn what benefits you or the people you serve may qualify for and how to get started, check out our new guide to filing your taxes in 2022, which includes:

- Eligibility for increased tax benefits
- Low-cost tax filing options
- Ways to receive your refund safely and quickly
- Potential tax scams
