

Access Management

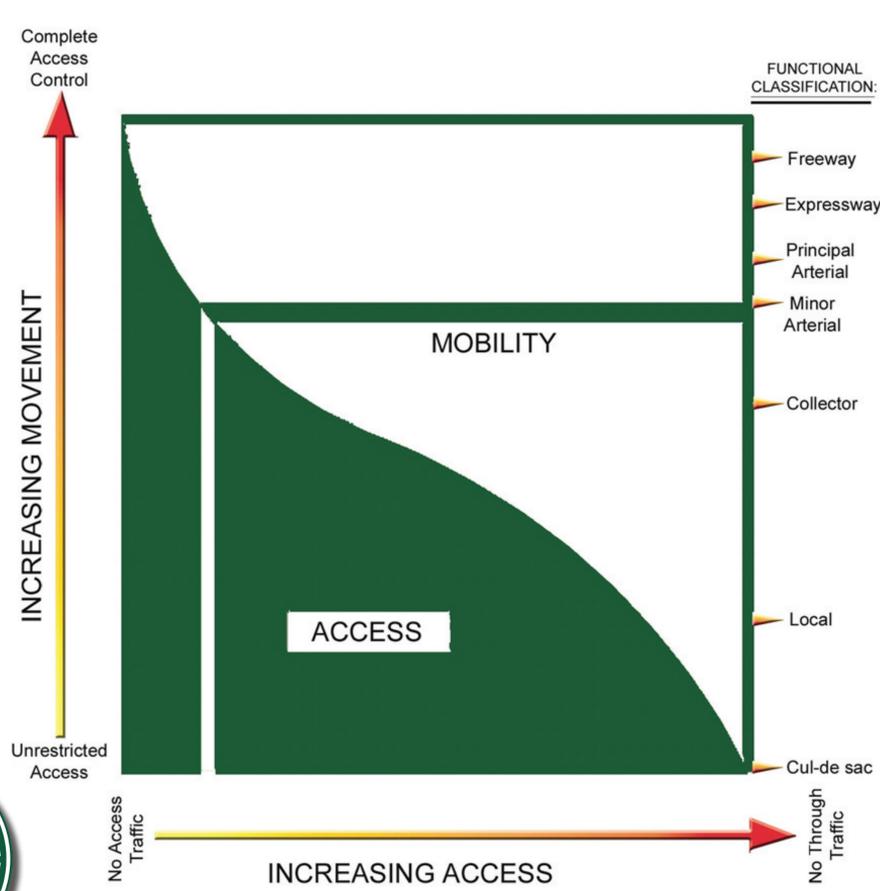

What is Access Management?

- The planning and control of the location, spacing, design, and operation of driveways, median openings and street connections to a roadway
- Designates where and how vehicles enter and exit
- Helps protect public investment in roadways and improve public safety
 - » Preserves mobility
 - » Reduces delay
 - » Minimizes crash problems

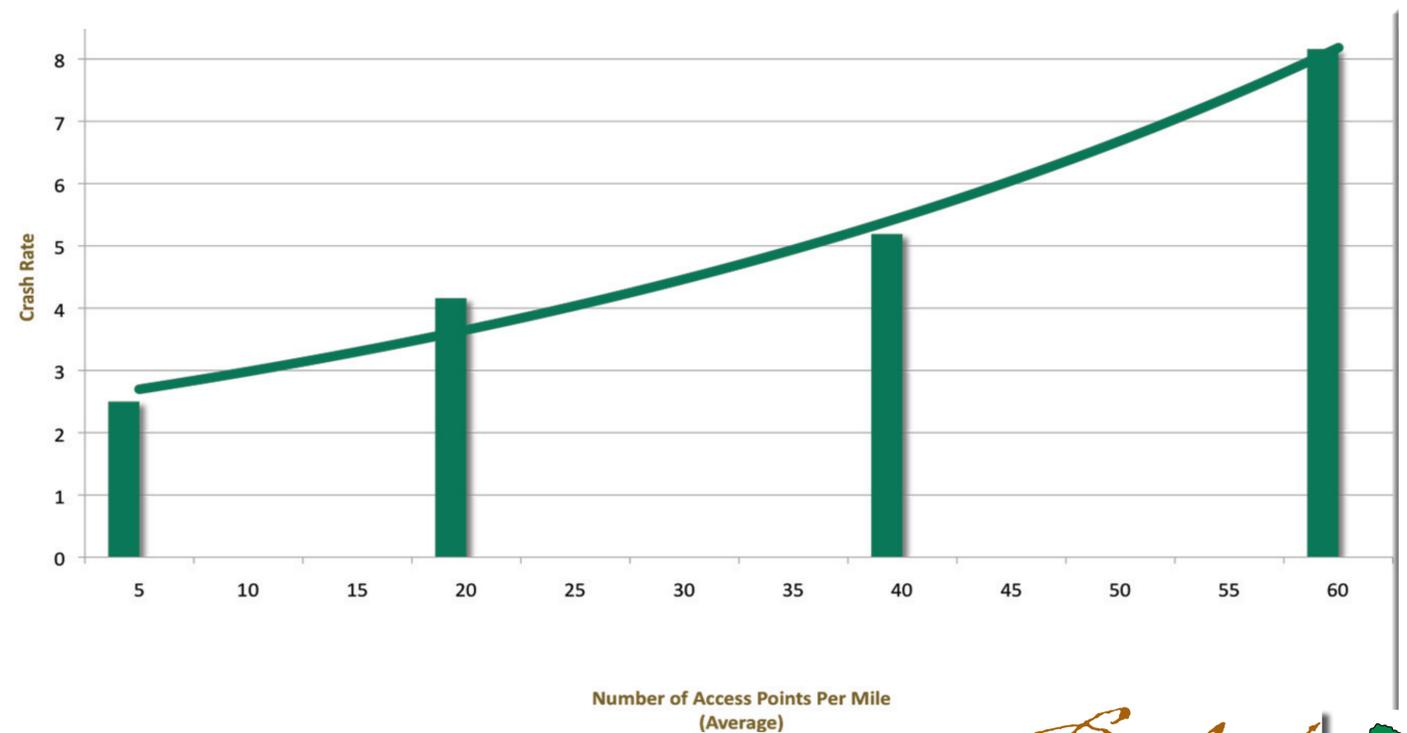

Access Conflict Points and Connection to Safety

Roadway Mobility/Access Relationship

Source: MnDOT Traffic Safety Fundamentals Handbook (August 2008)

Source: MnDOT Traffic Safety Fundamentals Handbook (August 2008)

