Failure is a symphony
Minor notes a scale for me
One lose step I crumble down
Long hard hours and now I frown
Days to weeks months to years
Dreams get chased now torn to tears
All I can do know is sit and hear
Listen to all who cannot cheer

I find myself in the depths of failure
Writing fast papers papers
My words can't connect
I've lost all respect
Like a puzzle trying to be solved
My ability now a torn up doll
Forged in fire I rest my case
I've lost myself to a blithering case

My heart torn out and ripped in two I've lost all hope for me and you
My minds gone blank the empty space
And my words can't be embraced
My pencil only scribbles out
Scrambled words I cannot count
My Throat catches words
My mind traps my words
And nowhere can I go from here

To write about soldiers who stand tall
My words can't seem to justify all
To write about the starving people
My words shake out no meaningful
To write about what truly matters dig down deep pull my mad hatter
Paint a picture masterpiece
I can't stop and I can't cease

A failure a screw up whatever you think
My mind to my paper there is no link
I can't write a rhyme a song a story
Only a page of minor glory now my words screech out in pain
My rhymes a complete shame

And my tongue can't seem to sing
I've lost all my ring and ting

But failure's not where I am done
Only now I have begun
Where failure is my opportunity
To show the world what is truly me
Lost now found standing both feet to the ground
I shed my frown
I wear my crown
And go marching out of this town

To grow out from my misery
To find what's all in store for me!
I cross a map of worlds to see
I've crossed all the biggest seas
My compass in my fellow hand
My map continues to help me stand
My heart guides me strongly
My fears follow longingly

Here I find my symphony (whole)
My accomplishments awaiting me (whole)
My time hasn't come
No I'll will never be done
My case will live on forever (whole)

Failure is my symphony
Minor notes a scale for me
I cross the biggest seas
And stretch the farthest lands
To grow from my misery
To find what's in store for me
My symphony now
My symphony is me
