

Screams

What's up is up
What's down is down
And everything inbetween

But when up is down
And down is up
Then all you hear are the screams

You'll hear the screams
Day and night
Never leaving your ears

But the day will come
When they come out your mouth
And the screams will disappear