Who Are We?

The Friends of the Heritage Library is a growing organization of citizens who share a passionate commitment for a strong library system.

What Is Our Mission?

The Friends of the Heritage Library mission is to:

- focus public attention on library services and needs
- stimulate the use of library resources and programs
- support the library through volunteerism, by recommending and developing library services for the community, and fund-raising

Become a Friend

Volunteer Opportunities

Senior Outreach

The Friends bring library services to our Senior residents. We deliver books and other materials to Senior apartments, provide transportation to the library, and work with the Senior Center on readings and other library programs.

Homebound Service

The Friends deliver library materials to homebound residents in Lakeville.

Young Adult and Children

The Friends help the Young Adult and Children's librarians with various events and activities. We are particularly excited about new programming for young adults including a summer book club.

Author Events

The Friends welcome authors and audiences and help librarians coordinate new or special events. Lakeville and the surrounding community has several authors who have spoken at the Heritage Library. A travel series is also being considered.

Book Sale

The Friends will hold a book sale every Fall to raise funds for future service projects. Members are eligible to attend a special preview sale.
